

The Daily Herald.

People Helping People

Steve Wright, left, with People Helping People Together, assists Central High School football players Bryant Belew, center, and Rodney Lockridge do landscape work around a home on Graham Street in Columbia.

Several of their teammates and other PHPT members were working close by. The group will return to the home Saturday to finish the job. PHPT is trying to help people living on the east side of Columbia improve their homes. Staff photo by Susan W. Thurman

